SMBs' State of Cybersecurity Is Not Great

A new report from Devolutions highlights just how much small and medium businesses need channel partners' help.

We developed a messaging strategy that positions Devolutions as the white knight for SMBs. Most SMBs tap MSPs for their IT needs. This story exemplifies how the strategy plays out in the media.

A global software company, Devolutions helps organizations worldwide “control the IT chaos” through highly secured password, remote connection and privileged access management solutions.

Devolutions' solutions support more than 400,000 users across 140 countries and has among its clientele such world-renowned companies as SpaceX, Shell, Walt Disney, NASDAQ, Dell, Sony, Microsoft, Pfizer, Airbnb and NASA.
